

Follow the happy vacationers in their cool fashion finds, left to right: Skip-a-midriff sweater with a jacquard pattern facing front. Of Italian cotton knit. By Juliano Knits; about $15. Pantskirt with a lilt (it looks like a kilt). Of Concord cotton duck. By Artbro; about $9. Bronislaw Hofman watch, Delill bag, Van Raalte knee socks, Et Cetera strappy shoes. Fence-walk wow: Start with a T-shirt of Alamac interlock; about $7. Add a batiste scarf with footprint design; about $4. And walk away in corduroy pants; about $16. All of cotton. By Hang Ten. Shoes by Bandolinos. Cycle stripes cross a cotton knit jumpsuit (see cover) with lots of leg room. By Boutique Bagatelle; about $19. Dynasty watch, Burmel scarf, Golo shoes. Sure-shooting style is a sharp white polo shirt in the new note of stretch lace. It's of nylon. By Gregory; about $15. The short shorts are of jungly printed cotton hopsacking (Everfast). By Strut 'n Stroll; about $10. Old England watch, belt by Ruza, Bonnie Doon anklets. Sure footing by Keds

CAVORT SPORT SWINGS CORA

Juliano Knits: Henri Bendel, New York. Artbro: Bamberger's, Newark; The Hecht Co., Washington, D.C. Hang Ten: Lord & Taylor, New York; John Wanamaker, Philadelphia. Boutique Bagatelle: Bloomingdale's, New York; Woodward & Lothrop, Washington D.C.; J. L. Brandeis, Omaha. Gregory: Saks Fifth Avenue; Neiman-Marcus, Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth. Strut 'n Stroll: Saks Fifth Avenue; Harzfeld's, Kansas City; Judy's, Los Angeles. Accessories stores, page 183.

MARC HISPARD